May 17, 2009

John 15:9-17

Today we hear that Jesus gave the disciples a new commandment. He said: This is my commandment: Love one another as I have loved you. There is no greater love than this, to lay down one's life for a friend. Jesus went on to say you are my friends, and I have told you all my Father told me. I choose you to go out and share with others what I have told you.

How do you show your love for others? Why is it important to love one another?

ARCHBISHOP'S GOLF INVITATIONAL

The 2009 Archbishop's Golf Invitational is scheduled for Friday, September 25 at the Reserve Vineyards and Golf Club in Aloha, Oregon. Golfers from around the Archdiocese are invited to put together one or more foursomes to represent their parish and/or Catholic school. A $600 entry fee entitles four golfers to tee prizes, lunch, practice balls, 18 holes of golf with a cart, and the awards dinner. Prizes are plentiful in this scramble format event, and raise much-needed funds for our archdiocesan seminarians. Last year, all spots were sold out well in advance of the tournament, so to avoid disappointment, secure your spot and register early.

For more information, visit www.archdpdx.org or contact Doug Tollefson at the Archdiocese of Portland at 503-233-8336 or gift@archdpdx.org.

QUOTE FROM POPE BENEDICT

Delivered in Jerusalem on May 11th

Peace is above all a divine gift. For peace is the Almighty's promise to humanity, and harbors unity. In the book of the prophet Jeremiah we read: "I know the plans I have in mind for you – it is the Lord who speaks – plans for peace not disaster, to give you a future and a hope" (Jer 29:11-12). The prophet reminds us of the Almighty's promise that he can "be found", that he "will listen", that he "will gather us together as one". But there is a proviso: we must "seek him", and "seek him with all our heart" (cf. ibid., 12-14).

The pope has been visiting the Holy Land this past week. To read his speeches, visit the Vatican website (www.vatican.va) or Whispers in the Loggia (whispersintheloggia.blogspot.com)
